

BRAND ESSENCE

WORK. RESET. REPEAT.

It’s about focus, balance, and a space designed to support your rhythm — just a little more structured, a little more intentional.

Welcome to Co-Day.
Coworking and wellness in the heart of Bingin.

You’re look at the Brand Guidelines for the (co)DAY brand.

CO-DAY — Work. Reset. Repeat.

Co-Day is more than a coworking space — it’s a structured sanctuary for focus and balance. Rooted in the calm energy of Bingin, we’ve created a space where productivity and recovery exist side by side. A place built on clarity, discipline, and the quiet confidence of people who value how they spend their time.

By day, Co-Day is designed for deep work — natural light, considered design, and an atmosphere that supports concentration without distraction. Founders, remote professionals, creatives, and modern nomads gather here to build, think, and move forward with intention.

But performance does not exist without recovery. At Co-Day, wellness is not an afterthought — it is part of the rhythm. Sauna sessions, cold plunges, and slow coffee breaks create space to reset, reflect, and return sharper.

Co-Day is made for those who seek structure without rigidity, community without chaos, and productivity without noise. For people who understand that balance is not about doing less — it’s about doing better.

Our vision is to create a space where work and wellbeing are integrated, not separated. A place where every day follows its own rhythm — and where clarity becomes your greatest advantage.

Brand Values

OUR BRAND

Brand values define the mindset and atmosphere of Co-Day. They shape how we design our spaces, structure our days, and connect with our community. From focused mornings at the desk to quiet recovery in the sauna, every touchpoint reflects clarity, intention and balance. These values guide how Co-Day shows up each day — and how people feel when they step into a space built for productivity with presence.

LOGO SAFEZONE

To ensure the logo maintains a high level of visibility it is important that is surrounded by a minimum amount of clear space.

No other graphic elements should encroach within this area.

The exclusion zone is equal to the height of the logotype above, below and at both sides. It creates a boundary around the logo.

OUR COLORS.

Primary & Secondary Colors

COLOR PALETTE

Our palette reflects the essence of (co)DAY — calm, focused, and quietly elevated.

Each tone represents a part of the Co-Day rhythm: the softness of Cloud Dancer, the grounding depth of Wren, the clarity of Mountain View, the warmth of Bone White, and the natural balance of Olive Night and Pelican.

Designed to feel refined yet effortless, the palette supports concentration, comfort and a sense of escape from the noise.

Visual Philosophy

Visual Philosophy defines the emotional foundation of the Co-Day brand.
It guides how we capture focus, movement and stillness — ensuring every image reflects our balance between productivity and wellbeing.

Co-Day visuals are built around intention.

Every image should reflect focus, balance and quiet performance. Whether it is deep work, sauna steam or a simple coffee close-up, the feeling remains the same: calm energy in motion.

Our photography captures moments of presence — sunlight on a laptop, breath in an ice bath, soft steam rising in a sauna, small conversations between adults who value both productivity and wellbeing.

Nothing is chaotic.

Nothing is staged for attention.

Everything feels natural, composed and purposeful.

Co-Day imagery should always communicate clarity — a space where work, wellness and community exist in harmony.

Photography Direction

Our photography is calm and intentional.

Natural light, warm tones and clean compositions capture focus, recovery and quiet connection — never chaos, never noise.
